

CORNING

CCS CELL CULTURE SERVICE

have the pleasure to invite you to our FREE

Scientific Seminar

at The Babraham Institute, Babraham Research Campus, Cambridge
on the 28th February 2012

Look forward to our in-depth technical presentations about the newest techniques in assay development. Get helpful hints for optimization of your own assays. Exchange opinions/information with other scientists.

10:00 a.m.	Welcome	Ute Vespermann, Corning
10:30 a.m.	Corning® Epic® Label Free Applications	Ute Vespermann, Corning
11:00 a.m.	Coffee Break and Networking
11:30 a.m.	Custom Supply of Frozen Instant Cells	Oliver Wehmeier, CCS
12:00 p.m.	EnSpire Label Free Assays	Guest speaker: Kathy Dodgson, Aurelia Bioscience
12:30 p.m.	Lunch and Networking
14:00 p.m.	Assay Optimization - Helpful Hints	Ute Vespermann, Corning
14:30 p.m.	It's still cells - Points to consider when working with assay ready frozen cells	Oliver Wehmeier, CCS
15:00 p.m.	EnSpire - Labelled Assay Technologies and Applications	Stuart McLarnon, PerkinElmer
16:00 p.m.	End of event

For logistics and security access to Babraham Campus please confirm your attendance with the attached registration form by 12th February to Andrea Georg at ageorg@t-online.de.

Looking forward to meeting you in Cambridge!

Best regards, Ute Vespermann